

SUSTAINABILITY IN TORONTO

Every year, Toronto's event and meeting industry makes significant strides toward sustainability, from energy-efficient venues and eco-friendly transportation to sophisticated waste reduction, recycling programs and biophilic event spaces.

Committed to reducing community-wide carbon emissions by 2040—one of the most ambitious plans in North America.

One of five Canadian cities in the top 15 in the 2023 Sustainable Cities Index from media and research firm Corporate Knights.

A Biophilic Cities Member since 2020.

Home to one of the largest fleets of electric buses in North America.

More than 640 green roofs, thanks to a green roof bylaw has been in effect since 2009.

More than 100 buildings use Enwave Energy's Deep Lake Water Cooling system, saving the city 90,000 mega-watt hours of electricity annually.

Add innovative, sustainable solutions to your event.

